PAIR OF SIXES EXCELS AS APT LAUGH-PRODUCER

Comedy Based Upon Absurdity Contains Many Situations Which Provoke Mirth; To Be Here Monday.

No play of recent years has created more laughter than the sparkling comedy, "A Pair of Sixes," to be at the Crystal Monday. The chief motive of "A Pair of Sixes" concerns the ingenious scheme of a young woman who, figuratively, shows how a queen of hearts is better than a pair of sixes. All of which develops after two young men, partners in business, unable to agree as to their respective importance to the firm, decide to separate—commercially. The lawyer for the firm is called in and he finds the condition aggravated to the point where no amicable agreement can be made, so he proposes a hand of showdown poker. The winner shall be known as the master and operate the business for a year, unopposed by the other, who is, however, to be credited with his share of the profits.

The loser is to be known as the "man" and must serve the "master" in the capacity of servant for one year. They agree on the scheme and its details, the lawyer puts it in legal form and when the hand is dealt a pair of sixes proves to be high. From this premise the complications develop new and laughable situations for the ensuing two acts, in which the wife of one partner and the fiancee of the other take a hand in the affair, which eventually becomes more hopelessly involved in the office stenographer. As an added feature to the caterpillar of seemingly endless complications, the English housemaid becomes innocently entangled in an affair with the "servant" partner, and the family finally evolves into a divorce mill. To unravel these complicated mixtures the clever young woman of the plot surprises the lawyer at his own game and re-establishes the young men in their office.

Mr. Frazee has cast "A Pair of Sixes" with a Jewish hand and in the local presentation will appear, besides Oscar Figman, such well known artists as Kate Guyon, Jack Rafferty, Rita Carlyle, George Leffingwell, Ethel Wilson, Richard Earle, Eleanor Fairbanks and others. A year in New York and six months in Chicago is but a brief record of the comedy's run in the larger cities.

WHEN YOU WAKE UP DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER

Wash the poisons and toxins from system before putting more food into stomach.

Says inside-bathing makes anyone look and feel clean, sweet and refreshed.

Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast like you do on the outside.
This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illness, while the bowel pores do.

For every ounce of food and drink taken into the stomach, nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out of the body. If this waste material is not eliminated day by day it quickly ferments and generates poisonous gases and toxins which are absorbed or sucked into the blood stream, through the lymph ducts which should suck only nourishment to sustain the body.

A splendid health measure is to drink before breakfast each day, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless way to wash these poisons, gases and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels; thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs but very little at the drug store but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on inside-bathing. Men and women who are accustomed to wake up with a dull, aching head or have furred tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, oiliness complexion, others who have bilious affections, and stomach or constipation are assured of pronounced improvement in both health and appearance shortly.
